

Community Quilts

Artist Flora Rosefsky of Atlanta, Georgia, has designed several quilts commissioned by community centers and has managed the teams of talented quiltmakers that completed them. See "Community Quilts: A Strategy for Success" in our May 2008 issue (issue 402) to learn how to run your own community quilt project.

The 97" x 69" Jewish Celebrations quilt, completed in 2000, now hangs at the William Breman Jewish Home in Atlanta. Here are close-ups of 8 blocks from that quilt. All photos courtesy Flora Rosefsky.

TOP row left to right:
Rosh Hodesh (New Moon),
Tu B'Shevat (New Year of the Trees), Shabbat (Sabbath).

MIDDLE row left to right:
Passover, Sukkot, Shavuot.

BOTTOM row left to right:
Hanukkah, Yom Ha'Shoah
(Holocaust Remembrance).

